

GOVERNMENT BENEFITS ANALYSTS INC.

Our Analysts have been trained to seek out Veterans and Spouses, and or Widows who reside in Assisted Living Facilities. They may be entitled to the "Aid and Attendance" Pension. This VA Benefit is as much as $1,950 per month. Are your loved ones missing out on these tax-free Benefits?

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO A VETERAN OR SURVIVING WIDOW? With Aid and Attendance pension, you are able to purchase the care you need: Assisted Living, Home Care, Adult Day Care, Etc. The pension is dependable like Social Security.

THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF VETERAN AFFAIRS STATES THAT: "Most Veterans are completely unaware that the program exists and the VA has had only limited success in finding them".

HOW DO YOU QUALIFY? Need at least 90 days active duty with one day during a time of War. Must be at least age 65 OR completely disabled. Military discharge must be anything but Dishonorable. THIS IS NOT MEDICAID AND YOU ARE NOT REQUIRED TO BE INDIGENT. Other conditions apply.

HOW DO YOU GET STARTED? Original copies of Veterans discharge papers. A surviving spouse needs marriage certificate and Veterans death certificate.

2009 ANNUAL MAX BENEFIT AMOUNTS
VETERAN & SPOUSE $23,396
VETERAN $19,736
WIDOW $12,681
